The Alamance-Burlington Board of Education included options for students to be "grandfathered", allowing them to remain at their current school under the following conditions:

- Rising 7th and 8th graders, currently attending Southern Middle School or Western Middle School, may remain at current school if parents provide transportation. When these students reach 9th grade, they will attend Walter M. Williams High School.
- Rising 10th, 11th and 12th graders, currently attending Southern High School or Western High School, may remain at their current school if parents provide transportation.
