Broadview Families,

During these unprecedented times of school closure, we want you to know that we are here to support you in any way that we can. Just because school goes on a break doesn't mean mental health concerns do too. It is important to address any and all warning signs of self-harm and suicide in a timely manner.

- If you or someone you know is struggling emotionally and express that they want to end their life, contact the National Suicide Hotline at 1-800-273-8255 immediately.
- If you or someone you know expresses that they want to harm themselves on purpose, text "HOME" to 741741 immediately.

Mental health is an essential component to whole body health and must be addressed just like any other serious medical concern. We want all of our families to be safe and healthy during these times. While you are washing your hands and taking precautions to avoid any viruses, make sure you make the time to take care of your mental health as well.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to reach out to the school as well during this closure.

Thank you,

Ms. Goldberg (Counselor)

Ms. Morrison (Counselor)

Ms. Hudson (Nurse)

Ms. Alston (Social Worker)
