

Community Collaboration

---

The Capstone Project reaches the larger community through the opportunity community members have to judge presentations. In addition, student service projects will benefit the larger community in which the students live. Students may choose to utilize community expertise if they choose to.