Area of complex figures.

When you have a complex figure you have to split the shape into shapes that you know how to find their area. Then you find the area of the separate parts. Your final area is the parts added together.

Example 1

Find the area of the purple figure.

Example 2

Find the area of the fairway between two streams on a golf course.

Closure

Find the area of the following.