1. No other known planet has both an _______ and _____ water. The conditions needed for life.

2. Two inches taller than a modern America, a natural athlete, a born hunter. This is his home, the Rift Valley of east ___________. A fertile laboratory for ____________.

3. But he has none of the natural weapons of Africa’s other predators. He can’t outrun a cheetah, nowhere near the strength of a lion, or the bone crushing jaws of a hyena. So he _____________.

4. If you eat, you’ll ____________, if you blow it, you’re _____________.

5. What is the greatest key to our survival?
   Water   Fire   Food

6. It can be argued that any society began with the cooking of _______ over a ____________.

7. Their unborn child only has a ___% chance of living to adulthood.

8. But around 70,000 years ago, a few hundred pioneers ____________ of Africa. The beginning of an extraordinary adventure. (Migration)

9. Over ________ years, mankind settles the Middle East, Asia, Australia, and Europe. As we spread out, a slight shift in the Earth’s axis away from the sun _________ the planet.

10. What were some of the first works of art?

11. Against all odds, we flourish. Then the planet starts to ________________.

12. How big is the human population by 10,000 BC?
   1 million          5 million          10 million

13. Planting the first seed is the first step towards _________________.

14. How much more can an acre of land feed than hunting and gathering?

15. What is the blueprint of the future?

16. Within 1000 years, most domesticated animals we have today have been _______ for human use.

17. All of the worst diseases came due to our proximity to living with _________________.

18. List at least one effect of hunger:
19. With farming life comes another leap for mankind, new ways of mourning and the beginnings of ____________________.

Skip to 30:30

20. Across the Middle East, the first ____________ rise. A revolution in human life.

21. The city give birth to two new keys of human progress. _________ and __________. And a new kind of man; the entrepreneur.

22. Tin added to __________ produces ___________. The metal that changes the face of warfare for the next 2,000 years.

23. Trade opens new frontiers, ____________________________ like never before.

24. Traders spread civilization across the world. The trade in ____________ and the struggle to control it, now lead to the birth of modern ________________.

End at 36:37