

CTE: Career and Technical Education

Eastern Alamance High School

"Once an Eagle, Always an Eagle"

EXPECT SUCCESS!

Fall semester 2019

Volume 6 Issue 5

DID YOU KNOW Governor Roy Cooper declared November 3, 2019 as Family & Consumer Science (FCS) Day in North Carolina?

Who are the EHS FCS teachers?

Dr. Bell
Ms. Clark
Ms. Jacobs
Mrs. Mercs

FCCLA celebrating with a Christmas Party!

FCCLA enjoyed an afternoon eating goodies, listening to Christmas music and enjoying each other's company! Members have and will continue to use Eagle time to prepare for State Competition in the spring.

Want to connect with EHS CTE? Like the EA Career & Technical Education facebook group! Great things happening and students engaged in hands-on learning!

Celebration

Becoming a National Board Certified Teacher (NBCT) is a professional development opportunity for ALL teachers. National Board Certification (NBC) is a voluntary, advanced teaching credential that goes beyond state licensure. NBC has national standards for what accomplished teachers should know and be able to do .

Currently at Eastern, 50% of our CTE teachers are nationally board certified!

NEW CTE CERTIFIED THIS YEAR:
Ms. Clark in H-1 (FCS)

Other NBCT'S:

Dr. Bell (FCS)
R. Johnson (FCS)
E. Mercs (FCS)
S. Smith (BUS)

To learn more about NBC, visit nbpts.org

Exams

January 13-17, 2019

The exam schedule is different is scheduled different this year. If you have any conflict, you will take your exams AS scheduled in the following PRIORITY order:

1. EOC (Biology, Eng 2, Math 1, Math 3)
2. CTE exam
3. NCFE's

If you have an EOC in conflict with a CTE course, your CTE teacher will be informing you of when and where you take your CTE exam. If you have any questions, see your CTE teacher or Mrs. Johnson in A-1.

DECA Quarter Auction

Bids in—Paddles up! DECA members and vendors provided a night of fun and shopping Friday, December 13 in the media center. This was a fund raising effort to support DECA members as they prepare for and attend the state competitive events in the spring.

Business Education students hearing about the World of Work in Business

Mr. Anderson and his Principles of Business Finance class spent the class period with Christine Holmes from Ernst and Young Global Limited. She talked about her career as an international accountant and assurance partner. She also shared her traveling experiences with work!

Christine is a senior partner in EY's Des Moines office with 30 years of audit and accounting experience. She has served domestic and global insurance and insurance services clients reporting under International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), US Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (US GAAP) and US Statutory Accounting Practices. She has extensive experience with Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) reporting, including comment letter resolution and reviewing SEC public filings (including debt offerings, quarterly and annual reports, foreign private issuer filings and initial public offerings). Christine has completed two international rotations in Japan and the Netherlands and spent four years as a member of EY's Capital Markets Group in Europe, advising engagement teams on technical matters related to accessing the US capital markets and building strong relationships throughout the firm's global organization. Christine is also the Diversity and Inclusiveness Leader for the Financial Services Office Assurance practice. In this role, she works to help all our people feel included. #ProudtoBelong

As the Control and Methodology Leader for financial services audit teams across the US from 2013 to 2019, Christine advised engagement teams on audit methodology and supports our quality initiatives in response to the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board and internal quality reviews.

Christine has extensive experience working with State Insurance Regulators in the United States, as well as the financial services company regulators in The Netherlands and the United Kingdom.

THANK YOU for sharing your expertise with the Business Department!

